

Whidbey Weavers Guild Memorial Grant Criterion

This Grant memorializes Janet Bratz, Mary Black and other by providing funds for an annual award of one or more grants. For the 2018-2019 year, the award is for a total of $500. The purpose of the grant(s) is to help finance a project designed to contribute to the recipient's growth and personal knowledge in the fiber arts. Examples of previous projects are extensive study towards Fiber Arts Certification, translation of a Swedish braiding manuscript, Incorporating Wire into Kumihimo, and Color Mixing for Procion Mx Dyes for Cellulose Fiber. The opportunities are as varied as the interests of our membership.

Requirements:

- Applicants must have been a participating member of the Guild for at least one year.
- Applicant must share the results of the project with the Guild by a display of the work produced via an oral report within one year.
- After receiving this grant, the recipient is not eligible to apply for five (5) years.
- Applications must be submitted by the April 4, 2019 Guild meeting.
- The project must be completed and reported on by June 2020
- If the project is not completed and report made, the money must be returned to the Guild.

Applications Guidelines: Page One: Name, address, telephone number, e-mail, and title of project. Page Two: Describe in detail the proposed project and grant money usage.

- What will you do and what is your time line?
- Will you attend classes, workshops, or a conference?
- Will you do individual study? If so, what resources will you use?
- Include an itemized account of how the grant money will be used.
- Give a brief plan of how and when you will share your results with the Guild and how you envision incorporating this experience into your future work.

Selection is made anonymously by a qualified non-WWG juror on the basis of:

- Merit of the project
- Contribution to the applicant's technical and aesthetic development and knowledge
- Commitment of the applicant
- Benefit to the Whidbey Weavers Guild

Award(s) will be announced at the June 2017 Guild meeting.

If submitted by email, submit page 1 and subsequent pages as 2 separate attachments.

Please return your application to: Nancy Baggott, Kate Lange-McKibben, Margaret Nichols, Sally Starnes or Paula Willstatter